

Delta Phi Epsilon Human Dignity Policy

Amended 11/2021

Delta Phi Epsilon stands for the principles of building a healthy society, whereby the individual's self-worth is important and shall not be compromised. Any attempts toward destruction of human dignity and activities that promote harassment are contrary to the tenets of interpersonal relationships and the philosophy of Delta Phi Epsilon.

We believe that every member is entitled to respect, regardless of their race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, disability, use of guide or support animals because of the blindness, deafness, or physical disabilities of the user, veteran status, familial status, or any other classification protected by applicable local, state, or federal anti-discrimination laws. Accordingly, Delta Phi Epsilon does not condone or tolerate any type of sexual or other unlawful harassment.
