100 Ways To Celebrate 100 Years

Sisterhood/Connections

1. Host and register an official Centennial Celebration with your chapter or alumnae association.
2. Find an old chapter picture on campus and recreate it. Share it on social media using #dphie100.
3. Visit Delta Phi Epsilon's International Headquarters located in downtown Philadelphia.
4. Send five handwritten notes to five different sisters in honor of our five Founders.
5. Send a bouquet of lovely purple irises to a sister.
6. Make sure your contact information is up to date. You can do this by visiting our website www.dphie.org or calling (215)732-5901.
7. Submit a life achievement for yourself or another sister to be published in the TRIAD.
8. Attend the chartering of a new Delta Phi Epsilon alumnae association or chapter in your area.
9. Pay a fellow sister's annual alumna dues by calling Headquarters (215)732-5901 (Do not forget to let her know.)
10. Represent Delta Phi Epsilon by joining a local alumnae panhellenic association.
11. Plant lovely purple irises in your garden or outside your chapter house.
12. Do you have any photos from your undergraduate days? Share them on social media for #ThrowbackThursday and #dphie100.
13. Tuck your children into bed with DPhiE songs as lullabies.
14. Create or purchase a wreath for your front door in our colors of royal purple and pure gold.
15. Do you know a wonderful young lady going off to college? Submit a Legacy Form or PNM introduction form to headquarters.
16. Organize a pledge class reunion.
17. Reaffirm the oath you took at initiation by attending ritual at a local chapter or alumnae association meeting.
18. Contact your school newspaper to have a story written about Delta Phi Epsilon's Centennial.
19. Visit the newly re-launched Delta Phi Epsilon website.
20. Wear pearls in honor of our jewel.
21. Memorize the mission and vision of Delta Phi Epsilon.
22. Give the gift of sisterhood to an incredible woman in your life. Recommend her for alumnae initiation.
23. Catch up on sisterhood news by reading old TRIAD issues. Did you know the TRIAD has been available in digital format on our website since 2011?
24. Learn fun facts about our sisterhood by joining the Delta Phi Epsilon History online community.
26. Create a time capsule to be opened on our 125th Founders’ Day.

27. Collect all your old chapter shirts and turn them into a sisterhood quilt you can proudly display in your home.

28. Gift the Dr. Paul Hirsch support pin to the unicorn activist in your life. This can be given to any non-member who supports the mission and vision of Delta Phi Epsilon.

29. Throw yourself a DPhiE-themed birthday party, complete with a unicorn cake.

30. Showcase archive photos in a special section and album of your chapter or alumnae website or social media pages.

31. Listen to Delta Phi Epsilon’s online songbook, available on Spotify, during your morning commute.

32. Write and submit an article to be considered for the TRIAD.

33. Bring a potential new member with you to a DPhiE event so she can learn about our sisterhood.

34. Frame and display your favorite photo with sisters in your home.

35. Show your chapter pride by purchasing a chapter guard to compliment your sisterhood badge. Get bonus points if you include officer dangles for any leadership or volunteer roles you have held.

Self/Character

1. As a chapter or alumnae association, track the number of leadership development opportunities you attend throughout the year. Try to reach 100.

2. Challenge yourself to grow as a leader by running for a position in your chapter or alumnae association.

4. Reflect on Delta Phi Epsilon’s principles, mission and vision and how they align with your personal values.

5. Promote your development by attending a workshop focused on personal development and growth.

6. Commit to becoming your best self by participating in the PEARL Program, using the 5 S’s as a collegiate and the 5 C’s as an alumna.

7. Create a personal bucket list with 100 ideas.

8. Organize an art class for your chapter or alumnae association. Plan ahead and have the painting be an iris or unicorn.

9. Provide support and encouragement as a mentor to another sister.

10. Set a PDP (Personal Development PEARL) for yourself and ask a sister to hold you accountable. Pro tip: PDPs also make excellent New Year’s resolutions.

11. Strengthen your operational knowledge by attending an Engage U in your region.

12. Sign up for a 5K with a group of sisters. The DPhiE Runners community group has over 650 members.

13. Learn 100 words in another language to communicate with sisters living around the world.

14. Develop leadership skills by having your alumnae association sponsor your attendance to our Alumnae Leadership Academy.

15. Commit to doing one small, positive activity for yourself every day, for 100 straight days.
Social/Cultural

1. Attend a Centennial Celebration event with your chapter, alumnae association or in your region.
2. Plan a girls’ night out (or in) with sisters.
3. Follow all of Delta Phi Epsilon’s official accounts on social media.
4. Get connected with an alumnae association in your area.
5. Post a positive DPhiE message on social media using #dphie100.
6. Have your alumnae association connect with a local chapter and host a senior to alumna event.
7. Reconnect with a long-lost sister.
8. Visit New York University Law School during a spring break or girls’ weekend trip. Visit the library and try to find our Founders in the yearbooks.
9. Broaden your horizons by attending a seminar or workshop on a topic you do not know much about.
11. Educate non-members about our Centennial and encourage them to promote the momentous occasion through conversations, social media or on campus.
12. Knowing many of our founders’ spent a great deal of their lives abroad, embody their worldly spirit and plan a trip to visit somewhere new.
13. Create a cookbook of your chapter or alumnae association’s 100 favorite recipes.
14. Get involved with your alma mater’s alumnae office and form a Greek Alumnae Council to advocate for and support your Greek community’s advancement on campus.
15. Host a mixer or social event themed to the time period of our founders. Include the attire and music popular during their era.

Service/Civic

1. Volunteer your time and talents by serving as a chapter advisor or on a committee.
2. Make a donation to the Delta Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation in honor of a sister who impacted your life.
3. Attend your chapter or alumnae association’s next philanthropic event.
4. Commit to donating 100 hours of your time to a local service project of your choice.
5. Participate in a local Great Strides Salk benefitting The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
6. Sign up to receive ANAD’s monthly blog written specifically for our sisterhood. You can do this at www.anad.org.
7. Add Delta Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation to your estate plans.
9. Encourage societal awareness by arranging for a speaker to attend your chapter meeting and discuss how sisters can make a positive impact outside of our sorority.
10. Our Founders went to school at a time when women were fighting for basic voting rights. Honor them by voting.
11. Alumnae can specifically support the chapter of their choosing with scholarships and grants through the Educational Foundation’s Loyalty Chapter Program. Get together with a group of your sisters to enroll your chapter today and commit to reaching your goal by Centennial.

13. Support another fraternity or sorority by attending their philanthropy event.

14. Educate a friend on Delta Phi Epsilon’s philanthropic work and history.

15. Link the Delta Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation to your Amazon account through Amazon Smile. Amazon will donate a portion of your regular shopping to the Delta Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation.

16. Collect 100 dimes and make a donation to the local philanthropy of your choice in Delta Phi Epsilon’s honor.

17. Collect five items to put in a Tate’s Totes bag and donate it to a local CFF.

18. Donate $100 to the Educational Foundation in honor of our 100 years of sisterhood.

19. Contact your mayor’s office and submit a request to have a formal proclamation issued on our Centennial Founders’ Day.

20. Host a can drive around the holidays and ask each member to bring five cans of food in honor of our founders.

Scholarship/Career

1. Network with sisters through Delta Phi Epsilon’s official LinkedIn page.

2. Apply for a scholarship or grant from the Delta Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation. These are available for sisters beyond your undergraduate years. Learn more at www.dphiefoundation.org.

3. Start a book club with sisters. Bonus points if your novel is authored by a DPhiE.

4. Wear your badge when attending professional development meetings/conferences.

5. Host a workshop for your chapter or alumnae association that teaches sisters how to include Delta Phi Epsilon into their resume.

6. Organize a networking event between your alumnae association and a local chapter’s upperclassmen.

7. Start an academic contest for the sister who receives the most 100’s on her exams and assignments.

8. Have your membership certificate framed and hung up alongside your diploma(s).

9. Share job and internship opportunities with your chapter through your member list-serv.

10. Highlight sisters who are achieving academic or career milestones in your alumnae newsletter and social media.

11. Display letters or paraphernalia in your office to show your DPhiE pride.

12. Sponsor a collegiate member to attend Engage U.

13. Create a mentor/mentee relationship with another sister who shares similar professional interests.

14. Attend a lecture of the women’s rights movement and learn about the environment our founders experienced while they were attending school.

15. Set a goal for each sister to log 100 library study hours before Centennial.